

CHARITON COURIER.

KEYTESVILLE, MO.

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 5, 1884.

National Democratic Ticket.

FOR PRESIDENT
GROVER CLEVELAND, OF NEW YORK.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT,
THOMAS A. HENDRICKS, OF INDIANA.

THE STATE ELECTORS.

At Large,
HENRY BROCKMEYER, of St. Louis
JAMES CRAIG, of Buchanan County.

First District.

JAMES ELLISON.

Second District.

G. F. ROTHWELL.

Third District.

A. W. KELSOE.

Fourth District.

THOS. H. PARKIS.

Fifth District.

JOHN N. SOUTHERN.

Sixth District.

E. C. MORE.

Seventh District.

NAT. C. DRYDEN.

Eighth District.

JOHN I. MARTIN.

Ninth District.

GEORGE W. ALLEN.

Tenth District.

JOHN F. FALLON.

Eleventh District.

E. A. SEAY.

Twelfth District.

D. A. DEARMAN.

Thirteenth District.

O. H. TRAVERS.

Fourteenth District.

JOSEPH J. RUSSELL.

STATE DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

FOR GOVERNOR,
JOHN S. MARMADUKE,
of St. Louis.

FOR LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR,
ALBERT P. MOOREHOUSE, of Nodaway County.

FOR SECRETARY OF STATE,
MICHAEL K. McGRATH,
of St. Louis.

FOR STATE TREASURER,
J. M. SIEBERT,
of Cape Girardeau County.

FOR STATE AUDITOR,
JOHN WALKER,
of Howard County.

FOR ATTORNEY-GENERAL,
B. G. BOONE, of Henry County.

FOR SUPREME JUDGE,
FRANCIS M. BLACK,
of Jackson County.

FOR RAILROAD COMMISSIONER, WM. DOWNING, of Scotland county.

CONGRESSMAN—2d DISTRICT, JOHN B. HALE, of Carroll County.

COUNTY DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

For Representative,
LUCIUS SALISBURY.

For Prosecuting Attorney,
CASPER W. BELL.

For Sheriff,
JAMES J. MOORE.

For Treasurer,
EARLE B. KELLOGG.

For Public Administrator,
CHARLES J. VIA.

For County Surveyor,
SAMUEL J. CARTER.

For Coroner,
F. B. PHILPOTT.

For Judge Eastern District,
GREEN G. DAMERON.

For Judge Western District,
WILLIAM E. PERKINSON.

Eleven bodies have been removed from the wrecked Belmont, near Henderson, Ky.

U. S. SENATOR ANTHONY of Rhode Island died at his home in Providence very suddenly the 2nd inst. in the 70th year of his age.

During the month of August the public debt decreased $8,542,551. Cash in the treasury, $413,341,952.

LATE rains will make the tobacco crop of Virginia an average one, but the leaves are smaller, which will somewhat change the type.

Prof. J. T. PAXEN, professor of mathematics in the normal school at Kirksville, died at that place on the 16th inst. His predecessor, Prof. Siles, died about a year ago.

It is estimated that Delaware will furnish from 7,000,000 to 8,000,000 baskets of peaches this year—the heaviest yield for nine years.

While watching the raising of a circus tent at Muncie, Ind., the other day, a Mrs. Smith recognized in one of the trained dogs an animal which had been stolen from her two years ago.

County Court Proceedings.

At the meeting of the county court Wednesday, Judge Marsh absent, the following jurors were drawn:

GRAND JURY.

J. L. Mason, A. G. Houston, J. T. Cook, Geo. Jackson, J. N. Long, C. Harper, Wm. Cook, Henry Robertson, G. R. Evans, S. W. Garnett, C. S. Forquan, T. S. Griffin.

SMALL JURORS.

Martin Green, A. T. Kennedy, T. E. Gilliam, Elias Elliott, Jas. Kaye, J. B. Culbertson, Wm. Glavin, W. E. Coulson, T. C. Sublett, Henry Ehrhardt, A. J. Crockett, R. Bull, Geo. Heckler, J. Knappenger, R. L. Green, T. S. Owens, D. L. Markee, John Daily, E. Ward, S. McKittick, T. G. Dulany, E. M. Williams, B. F. Fleetwood, J. T. Allen.

JUDGES OF ELECTION.

Keytesville—S. P. Ewing, A. S. Taylor, T. J. Martin, R. H. Tisdale.

Salisbury—J. M. Hamilton, John Nickerson, A. Colyer, W. Slaughter.

Chariton—L. A. Spencer, W. Heryford, H. C. Hart, E. Butler.

Missouri—Jos. Miles, Jas. Cuddy, B. F. Elliott, C. Noll.

Bowling Green—T. H. Carskadon, A. G. Arrington, Wm. Bitter, John P. Williams.

Brunswick—J. Knappenger, T. J. Griffin, Ben. Strub, N. A. Grubbs.

Triplet—B. H. Smith, Jas. Harper, W. T. Irwin, R. T. Morehead.

Cunningham—J. H. Parker, W. Fairbright, W. E. Taylor, R. McAllister.

Yellow Creek—T. J. L. Hutcheson, D. B. Allen, T. E. Waugh, J. D. Stanley.

Mendon—E. Ward, W. H. Dragg, J. M. Herndon, Wm. McGrew.

Salt Creek—D. C. Guthridge, W. J. Bogard, R. T. Dempsey, J. H. Pinnell.

Muscle Fork—R. G. Oldham, James Fuller, R. P. Clarkson, J. G. Oldham.

Clark—J. C. Couch, J. T. Robinson, W. S. West, A. M. Staples.

Bee Branch—W. H. Bradley, H. Yocum, T. S. Owens, Wm. Nance.

Cockrell—P. M. Heaton, J. Bayne, J. T. Cook, Wm. Price.

Wayland—Thos. Barnes, John Riley, W. J. Twyman, J. C. Sears.

Court adjourned till November. No action was taken on the purchase of the poor farm.

Nor long since the Austrian Consul at Pittsburg displayed his country's flag from his office in such a way as to obstruct to some extent the travel. The Chief of police ordered the flag taken down which was done under protest. The Consul considered such compulsory interference with his affairs a violation of the treaty between the U. S. and Austria, and complained to the Austrian Minister at Washington. The matter was referred to the state department, and secretary Frelinghuysen has directed or rather advised an apology, and now the Pittsburg authorities have agreed that suitable apology be made, after which all will be peace again.

The election for state officers in Arkansas last Monday resulted favorably to the Democrats by majorities ranging from 15,000 to 20,000. Owing to fusion tickets in some counties the Republicans and Greenbackers have made some gains in the legislature.

The Vermont election passed off quietly on the 2nd inst. with what is supposed a decreased Republican majority. The state majority will foot up 21,000 where about 25,000 majority was polled for the Republicans four years since.

The Missouri Greenbackers induced prohibition and nominated a liquor dealer for governor. Now let the Republicans nominate a prohibitionist for governor, and perhaps fusion can fuse in this state.

CADWY LOGAN, son of Gen. John A. Logan, has been arrested at West Point for blasphemy. He is evidently a "chip off the old block," for it is said that Gen. Logan could out-swear any man in the Union army.

The prohibitionists of Kansas have nominated a full state ticket, which has helped to create some uneasiness among the Republicans who are not sure but Governor Glick will be re-elected.

JACOB STORMS a pioneer settler of Ray county aged 74 years was killed last Monday by being thrown from a wagon while his mule team was running away.

THREE thousand miners in Hocking Valley, O., attacked the guards at the mines Sunday, killing one and wounding two. One of the hoppers was burned; loss $11,000.

THE coinage at the Philadelphia mint for August was $1,200,000, 1,402,000 five cent pieces and 1,390,000 cents, making 3,992,000 pieces, aggregating $1,284,000.

One of the Gainesville, Texas, papers wants an ordinance against bathing within the city limits; the other wants an ordinance to compel some people to bathe.

HON. JAS. N. BURNS was re-nominated for Congress by acclamation at the Democratic convention held at Marysville, in the Fourth district, last Monday.

A STOCK company has purchased a new outfit in Cincinnati, and in a few weeks will commence the publication of a new eight-column paper at Caruthersville, Penniscot county, Mo.

On a plea of guilty, one Butler, of Christian county, was sentenced to 97 years in the penitentiary, on a charge of wife murder, and was delivered at the pen last Monday.

The wife of Chief Justice Harlan is dangerously ill at Fortress Monroe.

Organize.

Chariton County Democrats are falling behind their neighbors in the organization of their party. While other localities have had their grand rally, and by their Cleveland and Hendricks show themselves to be alive and kicking, there is a general apathy in old Chariton. What's the matter with the boys? We have quite a number of hats to show where some of you stand, but they are only used in a sort of dress parade, that don't amount to much. Perhaps everybody is waiting for the central committee, from whom we hear not a word.

Two little girls aged respectively 7 and 9 years daughters of John McLaughlin of Flag Springs Andrew county were visiting a neighbor last Saturday evening. They did not return home at the time appointed. After night fall the father went to hunt for them. He soon found them in a corn field by the road side murdered. One had received a pistol ball in the head, and the throat of the other was cut from ear to ear. There were also unmistakable evidences of their having been outraged by some wretch in human form. Great excitement prevailed in the neighborhood, search was instituted, and a young man respectfully connected 18 years of age was arrested on suspicion of being the guilty wretch, the matter is being investigated and if the crime is fastened upon the accused he will be lynched without judge or jury.

Quite a sensation was created at the Cote d'Azur race track in St. Louis recently, when it was discovered that a plot had been laid to poison some of the most successful race horses. A villainous man from Texas got the car of the groom of Lady of the Lake, owned by a Louisville man, and proposed to give him $3,000 if he would give the animal the contents—laudanum and other drugs—of a bottle which he delivered. The groom agreed to the proposition but at once informed his employer of what had happened. The Texas man was arrested and jailed, and efforts are being made to induce him to divulge the names of other parties engaged in the plot.

To an uninterested party it is doubtless very amusing to read about the great tumble in politics this year. The Democrats say the Germans, who have heretofore been acting with the Republicans, have cut lose and will vote this year for Cleveland and Hendricks. While the Republicans report from many districts that the Germans are not breaking faith with them, but that the Democratic Irish are joining their ranks by thousands. We guess it is best not to depend upon disaffection and malcontents in other parties to push along our political car, but put our own shoulders to the wheels and push or pull as best we can till we get there.

In accordance with the decision of the U. S. Supreme Court declaring that portions of the civil rights bill, relating to landholders and their colored guests, unconstitutional, Judge Kregel ruled upon the cause entitled "The United States against Samuel Nichols," wherein it was charged that defendant some years since refused to care for colored guests at his hotel the same as other guests, by declaring the sections referred to as null and void. Hence we suppose no more cases of the kind will be brought soon.

The trouble in the Fifth congressional district, in which Graves and Wallace each claimed to be regularly nominated at the late Democratic convention held at Kansas City, has been settled by the state central committee to which the case was referred. At their sitting in St. Louis, last Saturday, the committee decided there had been no nomination and in accordance with the wishes of both contestants ordered a primary election for the 16th inst.

JOHN DAYTON, of Marion county, was accused of stealing two horses near Springfield, Ill. He was followed to his home, where the horses were found and identified by their owners. He was then arrested and put in jail at Hannibal till the necessary papers could be procured authorizing his being returned to Illinois.

CONGRESSMAN SPARKS, of Illinois gives it as his opinion that the prospect for Democratic victory in that state is good. He says the Germans are coming over to us in large numbers; that the national vote will not amount to much, and that the Prohibition ticket will get ten Republicans to one Democrat.

The Monroe City News says: We are authorized to announce that Rev. J. S. Dingle, who for the past four years has successfully conducted Palmyra Seminary, has purchased an interest in Monroe Institute, and will be actively engaged in the school for the coming year.

Wm. H. YOCUM last week sold his farm of 160 acres, near Bellet, Lewis county, Mo., to Martin Gash, at $47 per acre. It is of the best elm woods land, and was bought sixteen years ago at $50 per acre. The land this year grew wheat which averaged twenty bushels per acre.

It was announced a week ago in the papers that the Tammany faction of the Democratic party in New York had made arrangements to ratify the nominations of Cleveland and Hendricks to-day. When this is done Democrats will feel easier as to the result in New York.

While down in the Missouri Bottom on last Monday we were placed under obligations to Squire Miles and his excellent wife for a good country dinner, which was very grandly relished. Squire Miles informed us that there was about 16,000 bushels of wheat in sacks on the river bank within a scope of three miles. The farmers in that section had made special arrangements for a boat to take their wheat to market and expected its arrival last Wednesday. The tobacco in Missouri river bottom is probably the largest in Chariton county. The acreage of this product in that part of the county is about double what it was last year. Several of the farmers have commenced cutting, and if the present pretty weather continues it will be saved in good condition. Their corn crop there is one of the biggest things on earth and the good people in that part of the moral vineyard have nothing of which to complain, except the low prices of farm products, which we hope to see improve after Cleveland and Hendricks are elected.

The place of holding the Republican State nominating convention has been changed by order of the State Central Committee from Moberly to Jefferson city. The committee appointed by the Moberly fair association to procure attractions for the fair which is to begin the 9th inst., the same time the convention was to have been held there, invited Frank James to attend, supposing that he would attract much interest and probably many people. The Republicans seemed to be insulted at this and proceeded to let the matter be known by holding their convention somewhere else. The Moberly people through the Mayor endeavored to show the Republican State Committee that had the matter in charge that no offense was intended, but the committee seemed to think differently, hence the change. It seems to us a small affair to get mad about, but it is not our funeral.

A FAMILY living near Mount Morris, Mich., believes itself and belongings to have been bewitched, and, among other methods of obtaining relief, has cut nicks in the ears of the cattle and swine about the place.

A STRANGER story is told of a Pennsylvania convict recently pardoned out of the penitentiary in that state. Ten years since he was tried for a nameless crime, found guilty by a jury and his punishment assessed at 15 years in the penitentiary. The convict was then an ignorant, uncultured youth. The judge, in pronouncing sentence upon him alluded to his intellectual nature as being in harmony with the brutal crime charged against him. A certain red vest owned by the convict, identified by the woman as worn by the guilty party, whoever he was, had some shoulders to do with establishing the guilt of the accused in the minds of the jury. The young man, however, averred that about that time he had swapped vests with a man in the neighborhood. This man testified against him, hence his statement was not believed. The young man, conscious of his innocence, and being determined to be avenged upon his accusers, and being stung by the judge's allusion to his ignorance, determined to devote his spare time in the penitentiary to study. By the help of some of the other convicts he soon learned to read and write. He devoured all the reading matter furnished the convicts with greed, and soon knew more of the world and its doings than thousands outside the prison walls. For a cell mate he once had a minister that had gone wrong, and a lawyer that had not done right, from whom he received much valuable instruction. Upon his knees he swore to read and write. He devoured all the reading matter furnished the convicts with greed, and soon knew more of the world and its doings than thousands outside the prison walls. For a cell mate he once had a minister that had gone wrong, and a lawyer that had not done right, from whom he received much valuable instruction. Upon his knees he swore to read and write. He devoured all the reading matter furnished the convicts with greed, and soon knew more of the world and its doings than thousands outside the prison walls. For a cell mate he once had a minister that had gone wrong, and a lawyer that had not done right, from whom he received much valuable instruction. Upon his knees he swore to read and write. He devoured all the reading matter furnished the convicts with greed, and soon knew more of the world and its doings than thousands outside the prison walls. For a cell mate he once had a minister that had gone wrong, and a lawyer that had not done right, from whom he received much valuable instruction. Upon his knees he swore to read and write. He devoured all the reading matter furnished the convicts with greed, and soon knew more of the world and its doings than thousands outside the prison walls. For a cell mate he once had a minister that had gone wrong, and a lawyer that had not done right, from whom he received much valuable instruction. Upon his knees he swore to read and write. He devoured all the reading matter furnished the convicts with greed, and soon knew more of the world and its doings than thousands outside the prison walls. For a cell mate he once had a minister that had gone wrong, and a lawyer that had not done right, from whom he received much valuable instruction. Upon his knees he swore to read and write. He devoured all the reading matter furnished the convicts with greed, and soon knew more of the world and its doings than thousands outside the prison walls. For a cell mate he once had a minister that had gone wrong, and a lawyer that had not done right, from whom he received much valuable instruction. Upon his knees he swore to read and write. He devoured all the reading matter furnished the convicts with greed, and soon knew more of the world and its doings than thousands outside the prison walls. For a cell mate he once had a minister that had gone wrong, and a lawyer that had not done right, from whom he received much valuable instruction. Upon his knees he swore to read and write. He devoured all the reading matter furnished the convicts with greed, and soon knew more of the world and its doings than thousands outside the prison walls. For a cell mate he once had a minister that had gone wrong, and a lawyer that had not done right, from whom he received much valuable instruction. Upon his knees he swore to read and write. He devoured all the reading matter furnished the convicts with greed, and soon knew more of the world and its doings than thousands outside the prison walls. For a cell mate he once had a minister that had gone wrong, and a lawyer that had not done right, from whom he received much valuable instruction. Upon his knees he swore to read and write. He devoured all the reading matter furnished the convicts with greed, and soon knew more of the world and its doings than thousands outside the prison walls. For a cell mate he once had a minister that had gone wrong, and a lawyer that had not done right, from whom he received much valuable instruction. Upon his knees he swore to read and write. He devoured all the reading matter furnished the convicts with greed, and soon knew more of the world and its doings than thousands outside the prison walls. For a cell mate he once had a minister that had gone wrong, and a lawyer that had not done right, from whom he received much valuable instruction. Upon his knees he swore to read and write. He devoured all the reading matter furnished the convicts with greed, and soon knew more of the world and its doings than thousands outside the prison walls. For a cell mate he once had a minister that had gone wrong, and a lawyer that had not done right, from whom he received much valuable instruction. Upon his knees he swore to read and write. He devoured all the reading matter furnished the convicts with greed, and soon knew more of the world and its doings than thousands outside the prison walls. For a cell mate he once had a minister that had gone wrong, and a lawyer that had not done right, from whom he received much valuable instruction. Upon his knees he swore to read and write. He devoured all the reading matter furnished the convicts with greed, and soon knew more of the world and its doings than thousands outside the prison walls. For a cell mate he once had a minister that had gone wrong, and a lawyer that had not done right, from whom he received much valuable instruction. Upon his knees he swore to read and write. He devoured all the reading matter furnished the convicts with greed, and soon knew more of the world and its doings than thousands outside the prison walls. For a cell mate he once had a minister that had gone wrong, and a lawyer that had not done right, from whom he received much valuable instruction. Upon his knees he swore to read and write. He devoured all the reading matter furnished the convicts with greed, and soon knew more of the world and its doings than thousands outside the prison walls. For a cell mate he once had a minister that had gone wrong, and a lawyer that had not done right, from whom he received much valuable instruction. Upon his knees he swore to read and write. He devoured all the reading matter furnished the convicts with greed, and soon knew more of the world and its doings than thousands outside the prison walls. For a cell mate he once had a minister that had gone wrong, and a lawyer that had not done right, from whom he received much valuable instruction. Upon his knees he swore to read and write. He devoured all the reading matter furnished the convicts with greed, and soon knew more of the world and its doings than thousands outside the prison walls. For a cell mate he once had a minister that had gone wrong, and a lawyer that had not done right, from whom he received much valuable instruction. Upon his knees he swore to read and write. He devoured all the reading matter furnished the convicts with greed, and soon knew more of the world and its doings than thousands outside the prison walls. For a cell mate he once had a minister that had gone wrong, and a lawyer that had not done right, from whom he received much valuable instruction. Upon his knees he swore to read and write. He devoured all the reading matter furnished the convicts with greed, and soon knew more of the world and its doings than thousands outside the prison walls. For a cell mate he once had a minister that had gone wrong, and a lawyer that had not done right, from whom he received much valuable instruction. Upon his knees he swore to read and write. He devoured all the reading matter furnished the convicts with greed, and soon knew more of the world and its doings than thousands outside the prison walls. For a cell mate he once had a minister that had gone wrong, and a lawyer that had not done right, from whom he received much valuable instruction. Upon his knees he swore to read and write. He devoured all the reading matter furnished the convicts with greed, and soon knew more of the world and its doings than thousands outside the prison walls. For a cell mate he once had a minister that had gone wrong, and a lawyer that had not done right, from whom he received much valuable instruction. Upon his knees he swore to read and write. He devoured all the reading matter furnished the convicts with greed, and soon knew more of the world and its doings than thousands outside the prison walls. For a cell mate he once had a minister that had gone wrong, and a lawyer that had not done right, from whom he received much valuable instruction. Upon his knees he swore to read and write. He devoured all the reading matter furnished the convicts with greed, and soon knew more of the world and its doings than thousands outside the prison walls. For a cell mate he once had a minister that had gone wrong, and a lawyer that had not done right, from whom he received much valuable instruction. Upon his knees he swore to read and write. He devoured all the reading matter furnished the convicts with greed, and soon knew more of the world and its doings than thousands outside the prison walls. For a cell mate he once had a minister that had gone wrong, and a lawyer that had not done right, from whom he received much valuable instruction. Upon his knees he swore to read and write. He devoured all the reading matter furnished the convicts with greed, and soon knew more of the world and its doings than thousands outside the prison walls. For a cell mate he once had a minister that had gone wrong, and a lawyer that had not done right, from whom he received much valuable instruction. Upon his knees he swore to read and write. He devoured all the reading matter furnished the convicts with greed, and soon knew more of the world and its doings than thousands outside the prison walls. For a cell mate he once had a minister that had gone wrong, and a lawyer that had not done right, from whom he received much valuable instruction. Upon his knees he swore to read and write. He devoured all the reading matter furnished the convicts with greed, and soon knew more of the world and its doings than thousands outside the prison walls. For a cell mate he once had a minister that had gone wrong, and a lawyer that had not done right, from whom he received much valuable instruction. Upon his knees he swore to read and write. He devoured all the reading matter furnished the convicts with greed, and soon knew more of the world and its doings than thousands outside the prison walls. For a cell mate he once had a minister that had gone wrong, and a lawyer that had not done right, from whom he received much valuable instruction. Upon his knees he swore to read and write. He devoured all the reading matter furnished the convicts with greed, and soon knew more of the world and its doings than thousands outside the prison walls. For a cell mate he once had a minister that had gone wrong, and a lawyer that had not done right, from whom he received much valuable instruction. Upon his knees he swore to read and write. He devoured all the reading matter furnished the convicts with greed, and soon knew more of the world and its doings than thousands outside the prison walls. For a cell mate he once had a minister that had gone wrong, and a lawyer that had not done right, from whom he received much valuable instruction. Upon his knees he swore to read and write. He devoured all the reading matter furnished the convicts with greed, and soon knew more of the world and its doings than thousands outside the prison walls. For a cell mate he once had a minister that had gone wrong, and a lawyer that had not done right, from whom he received much valuable instruction. Upon his knees he swore to read and write. He devoured all the reading matter furnished the convicts with greed, and soon knew more of the world and its doings than thousands outside the prison walls. For a cell mate he once had a minister that had gone wrong, and a lawyer that had not done right, from whom he received much valuable instruction. Upon his knees he swore to read and write. He devoured all the reading matter furnished the convicts with greed, and soon knew more of the world and its doings than thousands outside the prison walls. For a cell mate he once had a minister that had gone wrong, and a lawyer that had not done right, from whom he received much valuable instruction. Upon his knees he swore to read and write. He devoured all the reading matter furnished the convicts with greed, and soon knew more of the world and its doings than thousands outside the prison walls. For a cell mate he once had a minister that had gone wrong, and a lawyer that had not done right, from whom he received much valuable instruction. Upon his knees he swore to read and write. He devoured all the reading matter furnished the convicts with greed, and soon knew more of the world and its doings than thousands outside the prison walls. For a cell mate he once had a minister that had gone wrong, and a lawyer that had not done right, from whom he received much valuable instruction. Upon his knees he swore to read and write. He devoured all the reading matter furnished the convicts with greed, and soon knew more of the world and its doings than thousands outside the prison walls. For a cell mate he once had a minister that had gone wrong, and a lawyer that had not done right, from whom he received much valuable instruction. Upon his knees he swore to read and write. He devoured all the reading matter furnished the convicts with greed, and soon knew more of the world and its doings than thousands outside the prison walls. For a cell mate he once had a minister that had gone wrong, and a lawyer that had not done right, from whom he received much valuable instruction. Upon his knees he swore to read and write. He devoured all the reading matter furnished the convicts with greed, and soon knew more of the world and its doings than thousands outside the prison walls. For a cell mate he once had a minister that had gone wrong, and a lawyer that had not done right, from whom he received much valuable instruction. Upon his knees he swore to read and write. He devoured all the reading matter furnished the convicts with greed, and soon knew more of the world and its doings than thousands outside the prison walls. For a cell mate he once had a minister that had gone wrong, and a lawyer that had not done right, from whom he received much valuable instruction. Upon his knees he swore to read and write. He devoured all the reading matter furnished the convicts with greed, and soon knew more of the world and its doings than thousands outside the prison walls. For a cell mate he once had a minister that had gone wrong, and a lawyer that had not done right, from whom he received much valuable instruction. Upon his knees he swore to read and write. He devoured all the reading matter furnished the convicts with greed, and soon knew more of the world and its doings than thousands outside the prison walls. For a cell mate he once had a minister that had gone wrong, and a lawyer that had not done right, from whom he received much valuable instruction. Upon his knees he swore to read and write. He devoured all the reading matter furnished the convicts with greed, and soon knew more of the world and its doings than thousands outside the prison walls. For a cell mate he once had a minister that had gone wrong, and a lawyer that had not done right, from whom he received much valuable instruction. Upon his knees he swore to read and write. He devoured all the reading matter furnished the convicts with greed, and soon knew more of the world and its doings than thousands outside the prison walls. For a cell mate he once had a minister that had gone wrong, and a lawyer that had not done right, from whom he received much valuable instruction. Upon his knees he swore to read and write. He devoured all the reading matter furnished the convicts with greed, and soon knew more of the world and its doings than thousands outside the prison walls. For a cell mate he once had a minister that had gone wrong, and a lawyer that had not done right, from whom he received much valuable instruction. Upon his knees he swore to read and write. He devoured all the reading matter furnished the convicts with greed, and soon knew more of the world and its doings than thousands outside the prison walls. For a cell mate he once had a minister that had gone wrong, and a lawyer that had not done right, from whom he received much valuable instruction. Upon his knees he swore to read and write. He devoured all the reading matter furnished the convicts with greed, and soon knew more of the world and its doings than thousands outside the prison walls. For a cell mate he once had a minister that had gone wrong, and a lawyer that had not done right, from whom he received much valuable instruction. Upon his knees he swore to read and write. He devoured all the reading matter furnished the convicts with greed, and soon knew more of the world and its doings than thousands outside the prison walls. For a cell mate he once had a minister that had gone wrong, and a lawyer that had not done right, from whom he received much valuable instruction. Upon his knees he swore to read and write. He devoured all the reading matter furnished the convicts with greed, and soon knew more of the world and its doings than thousands outside the prison walls. For a cell mate he once had a minister that had gone wrong, and a lawyer that had not done right, from whom he received much valuable instruction. Upon his knees he swore to read and write. He devoured all the reading matter furnished the convicts with greed, and soon knew more of the world and its doings than thousands outside the prison walls. For a cell mate he once had a minister that had gone wrong, and a lawyer that had not done right, from whom he received much valuable instruction. Upon his knees he swore to read and write. He devoured all the reading matter furnished the convicts with greed, and soon knew more of the world and its doings than thousands outside the prison walls. For a cell mate he once had a minister that had gone wrong, and a lawyer that had not done right, from whom he received much valuable instruction. Upon his knees he swore to read and write. He devoured all the reading matter furnished the convicts with greed, and soon knew more of the world and its doings than thousands outside the prison walls. For a cell mate he once had a minister that had gone wrong, and a lawyer that had not done right, from whom he received much valuable instruction. Upon his knees he swore to read and write. He devoured all the reading matter furnished the convicts with greed, and soon knew more of the world and its doings than thousands outside the prison walls. For a cell mate he once had a minister that had gone wrong, and a lawyer that had not done right, from whom he received much valuable instruction. Upon his knees he swore to read and write. He devoured all the reading matter furnished the convicts with greed, and soon knew more of the world and its doings than thousands outside the prison walls. For a cell mate he once had a minister that had gone wrong, and a lawyer that had not done right, from whom he received much valuable instruction. Upon his knees he swore to read and write. He devoured all the reading matter furnished the convicts with greed, and soon knew more of the world and its doings than thousands outside the prison walls. For a cell mate he once had a minister that had gone wrong, and a lawyer that had not done right, from whom he received much valuable instruction. Upon his knees he swore to read and write. He devoured all the reading matter furnished the convicts with greed, and soon knew more of the world and its doings than thousands outside the prison walls. For a cell mate he once had a minister that had gone wrong, and a lawyer that had not done right, from whom he received much valuable instruction. Upon his knees he swore to read and write. He devoured all the reading matter furnished the convicts with greed, and soon knew more of the world and its doings than thousands outside the prison walls. For a cell mate he once had a minister that had gone wrong, and a lawyer that had not done right, from whom he received much valuable instruction. Upon his knees he swore to read and write. He devoured all the reading matter furnished the convicts with greed, and soon knew more of the world and its doings than thousands outside the prison walls. For a cell mate he once had a minister that had gone wrong, and a lawyer that had not